Briefly describe project(s) Our Library and Emergency Loan Closet are the major projects sponsored by our Club, and has grown from 6 books on the corner drug store shelf in 1924 to 10,811 books today with circulation of 27,563. In our building, owned by the Club, the Emergency Loan Closet was started in 1943 when it was impossible to get equipment for the sick and convalescent, and to get into hospitals. Members donated what they had; Doctors donated also, and the

1. State reason for choice of project(s) equipment is loaned to people in the town and community.

These two projects effect more persons and families of our town and the community; although we do furnish free club rooms for blood drawing meetings, gave $200 to the swimming pool fund, donations to Girls State, donations to 4-H Club; and some members work regularly at Veterans Hospital, others sew for the State School at Nampa.

2. Tell extent of community cooperation

Our Mayor is one of our best backers, always helping in any way he can. Our Chamber of Commerce and business men, clubs, churches, Doctors, schools, the town and community in general cooperate in all our endeavors for the betterment of the town and community, and our local newspaper couldn't be more cooperative,

3. Outline permanent results (tangible and intangible) A Library, which will continue to grow through the years, providing entertainment to the young and old, and education for the students. Our Emergency Loan Closet continues to grow and more people continue to borrow our equipment, which consists of 9 complete hospital beds, 12 wheel chairs, 7 walkers, 3 oxygen tanks, adjusters, 4 commodes, 4 bedside tables, crutches, bed pans, and many other articles.

MERIDIAN PUBLIC LIBRARY
SPONSORED BY
MERIDIAN OCCIDENT CLUB

Meridian, Idaho, is a city of 2700 population, situated in the heart of Boise Valley. Dairying and agriculture are the principal sources of income. There is a Weyth Baby Food factory, a saw mill and planning mill, excellent schools, churches, lodges and clubs.

It was in June, 1924, when a six-women book club decided it was necessary to have a library in Meridian and invited 20 other neighbors and friends to join them, at which time the Occident Club was formed. At that time there was no other library in Meridian, so it has been our endeavor throughout the years to provide our children of the schools and community with the best possible books.

Our library started with six books on a shelf in the corner drug store, to which we kept adding books; in September 1925 the nucleus of the present library, consisting of two cases of books from the Idaho Traveling Library, was placed on the shelf. By March of the following year the library had outgrown the shelf in the drug store and was moved into space in the City Hall. A September 1925 report shows from 190-246 books a month were being checked out.

All those years the ladies had been working hard making money to buy them a club house, and in 1929 the Occident Club purchased the abandoned depot of the Interurban Railway Company. After some repairs the library was moved into the building and continued to enjoy a steady growth. An addition 20 ft. by 50 ft. was added to the building in 1950. The library occupies about three-fourths of this space and more floor space is needed at this time.

In 1969 the Meridian Jaycees asked to build on an addition to our library as their State project. We agreed to this plan and the project is still under construction. When completed it will provide additional space equal to what we now have. This has been an enterprize which has enlisted the interest and active participation of many organizations and individuals.

Meridian is growing by leaps and bounds with several new mobile home courts and housing projects. The enrollment in the school district was 4570 the first of this year, and the district clerk anticipated an enrollment of 5000 or more by September.

With this growth assured, the Occident Club is endeavoring to meet the needs and be of service to the community through our two projects, - the Library and the Emergency Loan Closet.

EMERGENCY LOAN CLOSET
MERIDIAN OCCIDENT CLUB

After participating in Red Cross work in War Relief, in 1943 one of our members conceived the idea of creating an Emergency Loan Closet. Her dreams became a reality when a Hobby Show netted a sum sufficient to purchase a hospital bed and a wheel chair. A mattress pad, air cushion, bed pan and two pairs of crutches were donated. A series of money raising projects followed, and thus our Emergency Loan Closet came into being.

Today it includes an adequate supply of all articles needed for home care of patients, including three oxygen units.

Ours is purely a loan service and the project has become self-sustaining by receiving voluntary monetary gifts from grateful borrowers, and by donations of many useful articles. $309.00 was received in the past year.

Articles are housed in our Club building and services are administered by a Committee of three members, appointed by the President.

They answer approximately 100 calls a year.

To Whom It May Concern:

The Meridian Occident Club, a Federated Civic Women's Organization, has for many years served the Communities growing needs in many ways through faithful service.

Many years ago this organization recognized the need of a Library. This need was filled by using their meeting building to house and issue books for the community to borrow and use. This same building is used to house emergency hospital equipment supervised by the membership and loaned out at no charge to those needing hospital beds, wheelchairs, crutches, oxygen equipment, etc. The building is also used by the community for public and private meetings.

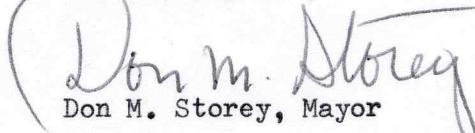

As the Library grew, this organization, from their own money, built an annex to their building to house the many books and publications which they have acquired. At the present an additional library annexation is being built because the program has again outgrown the present facilities.

The City supplied, through a small levy, funds to partially defray the costs of the Librarian and books as the Library grew. This money, together with the monies continually spent by the women of the Occident Club, have expanded the Library to meet most of the reading needs of this community and surrounding area.

It is a known fact realized by the City Council of the City of Meridian along with others in the community, that the Library would have a difficult time of survival were it not for the dedication of this organization to provide these facilities together with the necessary supervision.

I am truly grateful to this organization, for their many services extended to our community and for administering to the needs of our youth who thirst for knowledge as well as assisting those who read for the joy of reading.

Sincerely yours,

Don M. Storey

To whom it may concern:

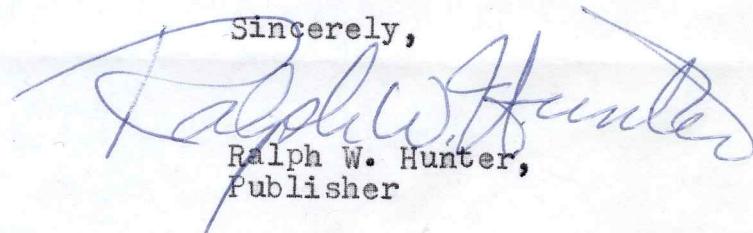

As the community newspaper, we work closely with more than 20 local service organizations -- but there is no doubt that the Occident Club stands at the top of the list, for its sponsorship and operation of activities that benefit everyone in the area.

Among its major activities is the operation of the Meridian Public Library. The Occident Club members and officers devote many, many hours each week to provide excellent library service for the entire area -- including outstanding service to the more than 4,500 students of the Meridian school district.

Another fine service provided by the Occident Club is the operation of the Emergency Loan Closet, through which residents may borrow sickroom equipment and other items for disabled or ill persons, free of charge. In our immediate community, that is the only source of such equipment, and the service is truly valuable and is greatly appreciated by all of us.

Our community is indeed fortunate to have such a fine service club, with such active and hard-working members. They are a major asset of the Meridian area.

Sincerely,

To whom it may concern:

We of the Meridian Chamber of Commerce are proud and appreciative of the fine community support and service provided by the Occident Club.

The club's management of the Meridian Public Library, and its operation of the Emergency Loan Closet, are valuable services that provide great benefit to hundreds of our residents.

The club is certainly one of the major assets of our community, and we commend its members highly for their outstanding service.

To whom it may concern:

The Meridian Occident Club operates a very distinctive and useful medical service for Meridian and the surrounding area.

Its' "Loan Closet" provides home health care aids which may be borrowed at no charge to the patient. Items such as hospital beds, walkers, oxygen hook-up equipment, and wheel chairs, which have been purchased by the Occident Club's fund raising drives, are available just for the asking.

We appreciate this community service and are proud of our Occident Club.

Work to start

Meridian library project gets $17,879 federal aid

The green light to go ahead with the construction of the proposed addition of the Meridian library, together with extensive remodeling work, was given this week with the approval of the request for federal funds to aid in the financing of the work.

Word was received by Mrs. Sally Lee, president of the Occident club, that the regional assistant commissioner of education in Denver, Colo. had approved plans for the building and that a grant of $17,879 had been set aside for the project.

The grant represents 57.75 percent of the total cost, which had been estimated by the Meridian Jaycee organization at $30,960. The Jaycees have taken on the library addition as their main project for the year and will assume the balance of the cost, amounting to $13,081.

Charles "Chuck" Stevens, president of the Jaycees, explained that the labor provided by members of the organization and material donated by Meridian and area firms will be included in the $13,081. The Jaycees have arranged for a $5,000 loan to use as a working fund and they plan to stage various community fund raising activities to obtain the rest of the money.

Stevens went to Boise Wednesday for consultations with Jay Spurte, architect in charge of planning the building. Stevens said that as soon as the plans are approved, bids will be let and work will be started immediately.

"We have just been holding back until we were sure we would get the money," Stevens said. "We did not want to 'make a lot of noise' until all the loose ends were tied up. Now we're ready to go ahead with everything full speed."

The Occident club, which Mrs. Lee heads, owns the building and the property on which the addition will be constructed. It was necessary for the club to lease the land to the city to meet federal requirements for funds. The money from the government will be sent to the library board, of which Mrs. Fred Bower is president.

Public to Hear Library Plans For Meridian

MERIDIAN — Plans for the new addition to the Meridian Public Library will be explained Monday by Gerald Sprute, Boise architect, at an Occident Club meeting, open to the public. The meeting will begin at 2 p.m. at the club house.

Occident club hears architect, enjoys program

Occident club members and guests Monday heard architect Gerald Sprute of Boise reveal completed plans for the addition and remodeling to be undertaken for the club building and city library.

Ray Voss and Jerry Gould of the Meridian Jaycees assisted Mr. Sprute in the presentation.

Library groups schedule ground-breaking in March

Complete plans for work to be done in enlarging and remodeling the Meridian city library were approved last week at a meeting of representatives of the organizations concerned. Ground-breaking ceremonies were set for some time during the week of March 10. The work will include remodeling of the present building, as well as a new addition.

The Meridian Jaycees will do most of the labor. They will also be responsible for the city's share of the money necessary to build a 30 by 50-foot addition and to completely remodel the exterior and interior of the present location in the Occident club building on East Idaho at Meridian Street.

In the plans prepared by architect Gerald Joseph Sprute of Boise, the main library room will occupy the entire space in the new addition. The Occident club quarters will be virtually rebuilt to allow for a reference room, work room, rest rooms, and a storage area. The portion of the building on the Meridian Street side, now used for club functions, will be repainted and renovated.

The entire exterior of the building will be remodeled to match the outside of the new addition.

Total cost $30,906

The total cost of the work has been estimated at $30,906, of which $17,879 has been approved in a federal grant. The Meridian Jaycees are pledged to raise the remaining $13,081 in cash, material and labor.

While the Jaycees will be responsible for the work from now on, city officials, members and officers of the Occident club, and the Meridian Library board have been working for months with the Jaycees to get the project under way. Among scores of other details, the city had to enter into a lease with the Occident club for its property, so that the project would qualify for federal financial assistance.

Sprute said the working plans will be completed this week and that bids for the work can be sent out immediately thereafter. Much of the planning work has already been done, and only the final details have delayed the start of the work.

The board of directors of the Jaycees will be the committee in charge of the entire project. With Charles "Chuck" Stevens as president, others are Ray Voss, Jerry Gould, Don Lambert, and Gary Henry.

MAYOR DON STOREY breaks ground in official starting ceremony for new addition and improvement of Meridian library. With mayor are Charles Stevens, president of Meridian

Work starts on library

With ground-breaking ceremonies attended by Jaycees, Occident Club officers, and city officials, the major addition-remodeling project is underway at the Meridian city library.

The main library room will occupy the new section, and the present quarters will be remodeled to include a reference room, work room, rest rooms, and storage area. The entire exterior of the present building will be remodeled to match the new addition. The side of the building on Meridian Street will be completely renovated and repainted.

Food sale aids library building

A cooked food sale will be conducted Friday of this week by members of the Occident club at Mangum's for the benefit of the Jaycee library fund.

According to the committee in charge, the sale will start at 9 a.m. August 8 and "continue until everything is sold".

JERRY GOULD, extreme left, is not only president of the Meridian Jaycees, he's the contractor for the big addition to the Meridian library the Jaycees have undertaken to build. Last week, Gould got a crew of bricklayers to work on the structure and by the end of the week, the walls were all up. Most of the labor is being donated by members of the organization, and much more money is needed for the Jaycees to continue the work. They are currently conducting a drive for funds.

Sorority gives $500 to library

In publishing last week's picture of the check given by Xi Alpha Rho, Exemplar chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, to the Jaycee library fund, the Valley News-Times failed to mention the amount.

The sorority's gift was in the healthy amount of $500.00 -- equalling the largest amount received from any contributor.

Jaycee president Larry Cantrell expressed appreciation to the sorority members for what he termed "their outstanding interest and help in this important community service".

Longest feather of pheasant season wins prize in Jaycee library drive

If you can shoot a pheasant rooster with a long, long tail, you have a pretty good chance of winning a new 12-gauge shot gun. And if somebody shoots one with the second or third longest feather in its tail, he will win a hunting vest and some shells or just a vest.

The Meridian Jaycees, in a continuing drive to raise money for the addition to the Meridian library they have undertaken to build, have pounced on the "long feather" idea to help out their finances.

Jaycee members are going about town selling tickets for the contest for the opening of pheasant season this weekend. The area hunter who gets the longest tail feather wins the gun. Second prize is a hunting vest and two boxes of shells, and third prize is a hunting vest.

Tickets may be obtained from any member of the Jaycees or at the Meridian Plumbing office. Tail feathers are to be taken to Meridian Plumbing for measurement.

Jim Burgess and "Skip" Voss are co-chairmen of the contest.

Meridian Grange disbands unit after 62 years

The final chapter in a record book that opened April 24, 1908, was written last week, when the Meridian Grange voted to disband.

In disbanding, the Grange added further to their long record of community service. With a little more than $300 in their treasury, the disbanding members voted to donate it to youth projects - including $150 to the Meridian Jaycees' library project, and the balance divided between the community swimming pool fund and the Idaho Ranch for Youth.

There will be 12 happy people Saturday, December 19 -- when the Meridian Jay-C-Ettes announce the winners of the prizes in their pre-Christmas project to help the library-building fund.

An additional three record-albums, of the winners' choice, have been added to the nine gifts listed last week. Those gifts include a genuine mink hat, with retail value of more than $75.00; a hand-made fan-design quilt, occasional chair, Corningware coffee pot, blanket, hand-crocheted throw rug, 50-foot lawn-and-garden hose, and a fibre glass double sink.

The gifts are now on display in the window of the building formerly occupied by Rice Pharmacy, next to Pat's Cafe in Meridian.

Tickets -- at 60c each or two for $1 -- are now on sale by all Jay-C-Ettes, and may also be purchased at the Valley News-Times' office. At the December 19 drawing, 12 separate tickets will be drawn, one for each of the prizes.

Donors of the prizes include Western Auto, Paul's Clover Farm, The Bazaar, Idaho First National Bank, Zamzow's Seed and Feed, Meridian Plumbing. Mrs. Nancy Sage crocheted the throw rug, and Jay-C-Ettes made the fan-design quilt.

Ambulance group donates $1,000 to JC library fund

A check for more than $1,000 will be turned over to the Meridian Jaycee library fund after the first of October by the Meridian ambulance committee as the final act of the group before disbanding.

Ray Pack, chairman of the ambulance committee, explained that the action was taken at a recent meeting which was called to decide what disposition should be made of the money that has accumulated in the organization's bank account.

Big contributors donate $2,400 to library fund

The major contributors so far are:

R. S. Phillips, Dr. Lee G. Pulley, Wayne Skiver, Chapel of the Chimes, Zamzow's Seed and Feed, Davis Foods, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Hunter and sons, Robert and John, First Federal Savings, Bud's Place and Farmers and Merchants bank.

Ambulance surplus funds boost Meridian library drive

JERRY GOULD, right, is receiving a check from Ray Pack, chairman of the Meridian ambulance committee, for $1,030 for the Meridian library fund and Mrs. Gould, vice president of the Meridian Jay-C-Ettes looks on. Gould is this year's president of the Meridian Jaycees who have taken on the project of building an annex to the Meridian library. Besides doing most of the work, the Jaycees are collecting funds and materials to complete the job. Although the check from Pack represents about a fourth of the entire amount collected for the project and brings the total to around the $4,000 mark, the Jaycees still have a long way to go in this respect and are still seeking contributions. About $8,000 more is needed to complete the job. The check from Pack represents the money that was left over from ambulance services while the committee was conducting the ambulance service. It does not include money raised by donation for the purchase of the ambulance.

Saturday sale benefits library

A "final fling" at raising funds to complete the new addition to Meridian's public library is planned for Saturday, when a cooked food sale will be held from 9 to 5 in the Occident club rooms.

A similar sale last month netted $102. Librarian Mrs. Nancy Sage said it is hoped that Saturday's event will be even more successful.

"We need both food donations and patrons," Mrs. Sage said.

Co-chairmen are Mrs. Sage and Mrs. John C. Petersen.

Meridian Jaycees slate
orange sale next week

Meridian Jaycees will hold their annual orange sale next Monday and Tuesday nights, December 7 and 8. Proceeds will be used for civic projects and for Christmas help for needy families of the area.

Persons who wish to purchase Jaycee oranges are asked to leave their porch-lights on next Monday or Tuesday night. Oranges may also be purchased Sunday afternoon at the former Rice Pharmacy building, next to Pat's Cafe.

Among other community-service projects, the Meridian Jaycees are sponsoring the enlargement and modernization of the Meridian public library building.

MERIDIAN — The Meridian Public Library "JC" building fund will benefit from the cooked foods sale to be held from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Occident Club Rooms. Sale co-chairmen Mrs. Herbert Pappenfuss and Mrs. Nancy Sage have announced that both food donations and patrons will be welcomed. The proceeds are earmarked for the purchase and installation of doors and windows for the new library addition.

1970 duck stamps can help library

Do you have a 1970 duck stamp that you didn't use? If so, the donation of the stamp will help the building project of the Meridian public library.

The stamps may be given to any member of the Meridian Jaycees, or may be left at the library. "This could be an important gain for the library," said a Jaycee, "and at no cost to the donor. Please check for any un-used 1970 duck stamp -- and contribute it to this worthy cause."

Jay-C-ettes plan hot dog sale this Saturday

The Meridian Jay-C-Ettes are going to do their bit this Saturday to help their husbands with the building of the addition to the Meridian library.

They plan to hold an all-day hot-dog sale at the Cloverfarm store. All proceeds will go to the library building fund.

Donations asked

Jaycees open all-out drive for library auction sale

An all-out effort to get a portion of the estimated $9,000 still needed for the Meridian library annex will be made by the Meridian Jaycees between now and September 13 in arranging for a big community auction to be held at the Meridian sales yard.

Right now, according to Harlan Schildhauer, chairman of the auction committee, Jaycee members are looking for articles of value to be put on sale at the auction. To make the sale a success, the Jaycees are anxious to get a number of "big" items they can sell at a bargain to assure a large crowd.

Smaller items, he hastened to say, will be more than welcome, too. They are working on the theory that a large variety of items with something everybody can use, will help to attract the crowd.

At the same time, it was reported by the Occident club women that a cooked food sale conducted at Mangum's store last week was a success and that sales and donations exceeded $75.

Schildhauer said that the Jaycees will arrange to pick up any item offered for the auction. Schildhauer can be reached at 888-2867 and Ron Roberts, associate chairman, can be reached at 888-2260.

The sale will be held Saturday afternoon, September 13.

Annual Breakfast - 1970

Next Wednesday morning

There'll be good eating for everyone at Occident club's pancake breakfast

The hundreds who have enjoyed the past annual pancake breakfasts at the Occident club in Meridian, and dozens of others who will enjoy the treat for the first time, are awaiting Wednesday, August 12.

The annual breakfast will start at 6 a.m., with serving to continue until 10 a.m. There is no set charge, but a free-will offering will be taken. Everyone, young and old, is invited.

Many community projects

Occident club projects have long benefited local and area residents. In 1924 the club's major project was to start a public library. Since that time, club members have taken an active part in the growth of the Meridian library and still serve on the library board.

The emergency loan closet has been serving area residents since 1943. All small sick room supplies are loaned out when needed, as well as hospital beds, wheelchairs, crutches, lifts, commodes, and walkers.

Mrs. Carl Egbert and Mrs. Voris Botkin are co-chairmen of the breakfast event. Mrs. Egbert, club president, in urging all area people to attend, said, "Come and bring the family. We'll be serving juice, pancakes, sausage, eggs, and all the coffee you can drink."

Occident club sets breakfast for library fund

The annual pancake breakfast of the Occident club which, over the years, has become a tradition in the Meridian area, will be staged Tuesday, August 12, at the club building on Meridian Street.

Service will start at 6:30 a.m. and continue through until 11 a.m. Pancakes, sausage, eggs, fruit juice and coffee will make up the menu.

This year, proceeds of the free-will offering that is always taken at the affair, will be donated to the library fund to help with building the new annex.

Members of the Jay-C-Ettes, with Mrs. Jerry Gould as committee chairman, will help the Occident club women with the meal.

THE IDAHO STATESMAN, Boise, Monday, August 23, 1971

From 7 to 11 a.m.

Occident club's pancake breakfast August 26 will benefit civic projects

The annual pancake breakfast sponsored by the Occident club will be held next Thursday, August 26, from 7 to 11 a.m. at the club house in Meridian. "All you can eat" will be served in exchange for voluntary contributions.

The breakfast is the civic group's only money-raising project of the year. Proceeds will benefit the library and the emergency loan closet, which the club maintains to aid ill persons in the community.

The breakfast menu will include pancakes, juice or fruit, scrambled eggs, bacon and sausage, and coffee.

Emergency loans

The emergency loan closet provides a unique service, for it makes available all necessities for the sick room, from oxygen equipment to bed-pans. The "closet" is equipped to loan everything that might be needed to care for the ill at home.

The club also gives strong support to the community library, and the remainder of the proceeds will go toward maintenance of the club house itself.

Directing plans for the breakfast is Occident club president, Mrs. C. L. Egbert.

Occidents tell breakfast net; slate meeting

The Occident Club will open fall activities when they meet Monday, September 6, at 2 p.m. Invited to appear on the program are Meridian high school senior girls Jane Tebbs, Stacie Stover, Rhonda Rupp, and Sherilyn Clarke, who will report on activities at Girls' State which they attended in June.

Hostesses for the meeting will be members of the board of directors, the Mmes. Carl Egbert, president; Ethel Pilkington, vice-president; Oral Coleman, secretary; Ray Anderson, assistant secretary; and Warren Moore, treasurer.

Breakfast raises $197

The pancake breakfast sponsored by the Occident Club proved again this year to be one of the popular community events of the summer. Mrs. Carl Egbert, president, reported this week that $197 was raised, and expressed thanks for the support of the community.

Meridian librarian wins "Woman of Year" honor

When Mrs. Nancy Sage, Meridian librarian, was invited to attend the Jaycee Jaycee-ette award banquet last week, she thought the clubs were going to present a gift to the library.

"I was never so surprised in my life," she laughs now, "as when they announced the 'Outstanding Woman of the Year' – and it was me!"

But to the 1,500 regular library patrons, Mrs. Sage's selection isn't surprising at all. Few women are as dedicated to their profession as is Mrs. Sage to the library she has loved and served so well for more than 15 years.

Occident club enjoys program at Monday meet

A program on safety hints led by Mrs. Edith Crockett, with several members participating, highlighted Monday's meeting of the Occident club.

The library report for September showed a total of 20 new cards issued, the addition of 24 books, and a total of $129 collected in fees.

The two librarians and a board member -- Mrs. Nancy Sage, Mrs. Marie Sandy, and Mrs. Margaret Judd -- attended a state library conference at Boise recently. Meridian library was singled out as being one of only two libraries in the state not operated wholly by municipal funds.

Mrs. Cairns honored

As the initial honoree in a new club project, Mrs. Mabel Cairns was named "Woman of the Month".

A report on the Emergency Loan Closet showed a total of 14 loans made during the month, and receipt of $8 in donations.

Meridian Legion donates books

The American Legion's education and scholarship handbook, "Need a Lift?" which contains information about an estimated $2 billion worth of scholarships, loans and part-time jobs at colleges and vocational schools for qualified high school students, has been presented to the Meridian high school and Meridian public library by Lloyd E. Hutcheson Unit 113 of the American Legion Auxiliary.

This annually revised publication is recognized as one of the most complete and up-to-date sources of career and scholarship information in the United States. It does not limit its listings to children of veterans but contains scholarships and educational aids which are available to all students.

Mrs. Hervey Brecks, education and scholarship chairman of the Meridian unit, stated that thousands of young people have not taken advantage of the educational aids which are available due to a failure to plan early for their future education.

She mentioned in particular the Junior GI Bill which provides up to $130 per month for four years of educational help for sons and daughters of veterans who lost their lives or who were permanently and totally disabled as a result of military service. Although more than $34 million was available last year from this source along, not half the young people eligible for this help took advantage of it.

Women attend governor's meet

Meridian librarian Mrs. Nancy Sage, Mrs. George Judd, library chairman for the Occident Club and Mrs. Marie Sandy will attend the Governor's conference on libraries this Friday at the Downtowner.

Topics to be discussed include statewide planning for library service in the 70's; community involvement; public support and finances; the need for regional library law; continuing education for personnel; service to migrants; reaching the unserved and poorly served and serving the pre-school child in rural areas.

Occidents tally summer events at first meeting

Summer activities of the Occident club were tallied when the group held its first meeting of the winter season Monday.

Members were told that during the past year a total of 163 hours of sewing has been done for the Veteran's hospital in Boise.

The club voted to make a donation to the hospital for the purchase of molds for ceramic work by patients.

Library report

During the summer, 7,253 books were loaned by the Meridian library, 67 new books were purchased, and 112 were donated.

The loan closet, which the club maintains to provide sick-room needs for the care of patients at home, filled 48 requests and received $65 in contributions.

Club members heard Girls' State delegates Ronda Rupp and Stacie Stover report on their participation in the annual event.

Members of the board of directors were hostesses at the September meeting. They are the Mmes. Carl Egbert, Oral Coleman, Ethel Pilkington, Ray Anderson, Warren Moore and Mildred Botkin.

Library report

Mayor Don Storey read a report from the Occident club, which operates the Meridian city library. It showed total tax income of $2,687.44, and expenditures of $3,052.29 -- with the club paying the difference. Mayor Storey said, "These costs represent only a small part of the many services performed by the Occident club women for the library. Our community is indeed indebted to them for our fine library, which could not exist without their volunteer work."

$8,865 still needed

Meridian Jaycees report on library-project fund

Jerald Gould, the outgoing president of the Meridian Jaycees, today issued a financial report on the enlargement and remodeling of the Meridian public library - a $13,900 community-service project sponsored by the Jaycees.

He said that a $5,000 grant had been received from the federal government, and a total of $5,035 has been received from the community -- for total receipts to date of $10,035.

Expenditures to date include $1,300 for paving, concrete, finishing, steel, and gravel . . . $1,950 for masonry, labor and materials . . . $5,985 for windows and woodwork, including labor and materials . . . $400 for glass . . . and $1,200 for the architect's fee.

Of the $5,035 received locally, Gould said that $1,030 was from the community ambulance fund . . . $1,500 donated by business people . . . $875 raised by the Jaycees' community auction . . . $1,000 from the Occident Club . . . $390 raised at the breakfast and cooked food sale . . . and $190 in miscellaneous contributions.

"As the foregoing figures show," said the Jaycee president, "we are still $8,865 short of our goal. We earnestly invite community residents to help with this project. The Meridian public library provides a vital service for residents of the city as well as those of nearby areas . . . including books and research for our district's hundreds of students."

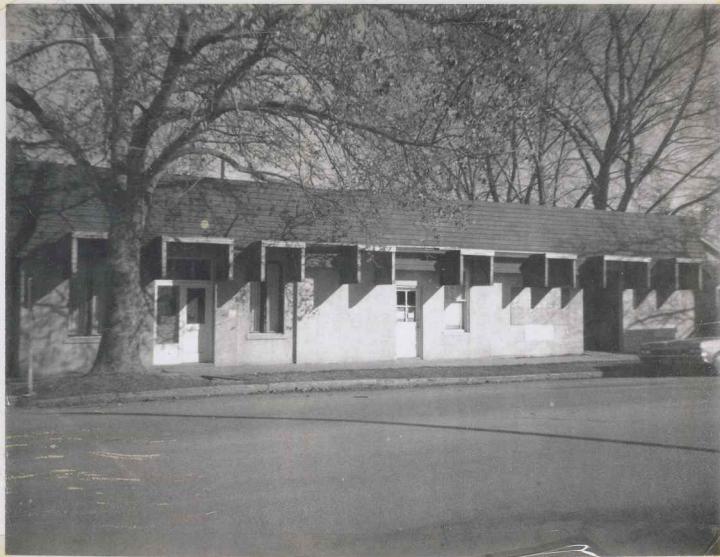

Jaycees install new slate for year

honored as "Jaycee of the Year", and Mrs. Lila Shaul as "Jaycee Wife of the Year". Charles Stevens and Cantrell also received Key Men awards. Other awards were to Cantrell as Outstanding Spoke, Bruce Vanatta as Outstanding Speak-Up; Mrs. Gould as Outstanding Sparkette, Charles Stevens as Outstanding Spark; Mrs. Cantrell as Key Woman. Retiring president Gould was named for "Exhausted Rooster" award. (Horton Studio)
