The regular monthly meeting of the Occident Club was held at the Occident Club House, March 7th, 1966. Present were twenty-five members. There were no visitors. The secretary, Mrs. Irma Ayers, was absent due to illness and Ethel Soucie served as acting secretary.

The meeting was called to order at 2:00 O'clock P. M. by the president, Mrs. Anderson. The collet was read in unison followed by the reading of a short poem "Friendship" by Mrs. Dean Ulmer. A salute to the flag was followed by singing of "God Bless America".

Minutes of the meeting of February 9th, 1966 were read and approved as read.

Mrs. Ulmer introduced Mr. Goodwin who is the art instructor at the High School. He spoke on art and showed several pictures made by members of his adult education art class, explaining the carrying out of the artist's ideas in the picture. The program was very interesting.

The treasurer's report showed the following:

January 1966 balance	$1991.11
Receipts	75.69
Bank balance, Feb 9, 1966 Total	$2066.80
Disbursed	287.80
February 1966 balance	$1779.00
Library balance, February 1966	$1050.35
Emergency Loan, Bal. February 1966	460.99
General Fund balance	267.66
Balance February 1966	$1779.00

The treasurer's report was filed for audit.

The bills for the month were present. A motion by Mrs. Rose directing the payment of the bills was seconded and unanimously carried.

Mrs. Susie Cairns had been directed to investigate the advisability of repairing the vacuum cleaner belonging to the Club. She reported that she was informed by repairmen that it really was not worth repairing. She owned a Hoover which she was not using and which could be repaired for $11.16. She offered to give her Hoover vacuum to the club and the offer was accepted with thanks to Mrs. Cairns by the club.

Mrs. Bell reported that during the 1965 season the hospital committee had turned in the following to the Nampa State School:

9 knitted bed slippers	1 doz. aprons,
9 doz. bibs	12 doz diapers
3 boxes of strings	2 crib quilts

Due to illness at home, Mrs. Bell was no longer able to continue with the hospital work, and was given a vote of thanks for the wonderful work she had accomplished. Mrs. Hazel Goodwin and Mrs. Esther Homan will take Mrs. Bell's place. Mrs. Homan and Mrs. Goodwin gave a report on a visit this past month to the Nampa State Hospital which was interesting. The name of the hospital has been changed to "Idaho State School and Hospital". Several boxes of sewing were brought to the club for distribution to the members.

Mrs. Anderson stated that Mrs. Clara Maw had phoned her that she was unable to be present due to illness, but that she had not sent any cards during the past month.

The Emergency Loan committee reported receiving $20.00 as "Thank you" for use of equipment. Mr. Henry Kurry $5.00 for a chair and walker and $15.00 from Mrs. Edward Lemon.

The librarian's report was read showing 1903 books checked out, 41 cards issued, 31 books added to the shelves, a donation of eighty cents and miscellaneous expense of $3.41.

Mrs. Pratt reported that she and Mesdames Botkin, Sandy, Wilson and Ulmer accepted the invitation of the Century Club at Nampa and spent a very enjoyable afternoon visiting that club.

Mrs. Cairns reported her committee was preparing to serve dinner for the Lion's Club on March the 25th.

Mrs. Sowcie reported that preparations for the Art exhibit were going forward for the exhibit on the 24th of March. She asked for an advance of $12.00 to be used as prize money, and authority to procure "Thank You" gifts for the judges and incidental expenses such as ribbons etc. A motion to that effect was made, seconded and carried. She asked for help in arranging the pictures the morning of the 23rd and the following volunteered, - Rose, Goodwin, Pratt and Langley and S. Cairns. Offering to serve as hostesses were Botkin, Pratt, N. Scrivner, Ulmer and S. Cairns. The exhibit would be open from 10:00 A.M. to 8:00 P.M. on March 24th.

The president called for nominations for delegates to the district convention of the Idaho Federated Women's Club in April.

Nominated were Mesdames Homan, Pratt and Rose, the nominations were closed and they were duly elected to serve as delegates from the Occident Club.

Mesdames, Sandy, Bower and Langley were nominated as alternate delegates and were duly elected.

The question of sending a girl to "Girl's State" which is sponsored thru the American Legion Auxiliary, was presented and discussed. Mrs. Rose moved that the Occident Club give $10.00 toward the expense. The motion was seconded and carried.

The matter of donating to "Idaho Pines," "Indian School Scholarship", "Rupert Youth Ranch" and the "4-H Camp" was presented by the president.

A motion to contribute $10.00 toward the 4-H camp was made seconded and carried.

Action on the other items was deferred for the present as the general fund balance was running low, however, it was decided to place a dish on the table for contributions to the "Pennies for Pines" at this meeting and at the April meeting.

Mrs. Nina Egbert was reported to be unable to attend to-day because of illness. Mrs. Veach's niece had arrived to be with her for a while.

Mrs. Botkin and Mrs. Rose invited anyone interested, regardless of denominational affiliations, to attend the prayer meetings to be held at thier respective homes.

Mrs. Anderson was wearing a very pretty pin in the form of a flag. The pine was supposed to be worn over the heart and in support of the slogan, "Show your colors". Mrs. Sandy made the explanation and can be obtained thru the Legion Auxiliary.

The following song composed by Mrs. Elma Veach several years ago was sung and is to be used as the Occident Club song at the district convention.

"We are the Meridian Occident Club
From the town of Meridian.
We are the liveliest bunch of girls,
The very best in the land.
We feed the hungry,
Care for the sick,
With our emergency chest.
We have a splendid library
with books of the very best.

"O, Meridian Occident Club!
We work with all our might.
O, Meridian Occident Club,
We do a good job, and we do it
just right.

"We work, we play, we sing, we dance,
Our aims we do attain.
We try to build a better town,
We do not strive in vain."

Author: Elma Veach
Tune: "Solomon Levi."

Hostesses :-Mesdames N . Scrivner, Paul, Doss, Botkin, Langley and Peter.

There being no further business the meeting was adjourned.

Joan Dungeon and Carolyn Linton ~~were~~ told of the program and activities carried out at the sessions. They explained in detail the Americanism program of Flag raising and retreat ceremonies, saying they were very inspirational and praised the program set up by the sponsor.

The girls expressed that they had learned much about our Government which they would not have otherwise known. The elections and everything was authentically done. When the Legislative session was held in the Capitol the procedure was done as if they were the real legislators. Music played an important roll in they had it in some form during their meals, a great many very talented girls attend. "any girls get an idea of dorm and college life where they will later be going. An end to a busy day is very relaxing with an inspirational session with their Counselor.

Good speakers on government procedure and comparison of our way with that of Russia's were on the program. The girls that they ~~were~~ learned about the Northern part of our state from those attending from there and vice versa. The girls had to make a poppy which is the emblem of their sponsor, the American Legion Auxiliary. A finish to a very fine report, the girls sang their Girls State song. They had on display a table of the many things received at their sessions as literature about our government, pictures and the newspaper publicity.

Guests introduced were Mrs. Scrivner of Long Beach, Cal. and Mrs. Peterson of Meridian.
