

Jan. 3-1972.

At 2:00 P.M. the meeting of the Occident Club was called to order by President Anna Egbert. Deane Ulmer presented the program on the topic "Home Life." A trumpet solo by Mark Smith, accompanied by Sam Younge was greatly enjoyed and lack of time by the performer prevented an encore. Rev. Chas. Easly, Jr. was introduced and, ⁱⁿ his usual pleasing & informal manner gave as many thoughts to dwell upon. He named as some essential needs (especially for older people); to cultivate & maintain a sense of humor; an interest in hobbies - such as hand work, poetry, advanced education; an interest in and association with people of all ages; and as an anchor to hold on to a responsive love in return for the love of Christ.

President greeted all present and thanked the current Committee: Nettie Hudson, Clara May, Zelma Haworth and Jessie Matcham.

The Club Callot was repeated, and Rev. Easly led us in prayer. The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag was given.

Minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved.

Treasurer's report follows & was filed for auditing.

Membership: - Deane Ulmer expressed pleasure in having Doris Scott, ^{present} and again asked co-operation of all members in obtaining new members.

Veterans Affairs: Marie Sandy reported 1 woman had worked 8 hrs. for Veterans Home. She mentioned the Cemetery Program being advertised in parts of the U. S. Warning is issued to any Veteran, ^{before} signing papers for this - for it is not exactly what it seems. Idaho State Commander of the Legion, V. F. W. & D.A.V. feel there is a need for cemeteries as National military cemeteries are filled - but they do not sponsor the present program as it stands.
The Program under consideration is said to call for 5 cemeteries in Idaho: Lewiston, Boise, Burley, Pocatello & Coeur d'Alene. Again a warning to Veterans - In some cases a family has had to pay more than at a regular commitment.

In 1971 - $41,000,000 was spent in Idaho; 10,000,000 in Ada County for pension benefits, educational assistance, insurance, indemnities and the operation of V.A. Hospital

Excellent reports of 2nd Dist. Convention were given by Minnie Anderson & Ethel Wilkington. Horseshoe Bend Club conducted the Memorial Service at which 3 of our members were honored; Alice Dawson, Alice Lant & Elizabeth Jeeread. Prizes were given out members who arranged the Luncheon. Great interest was shown in reports from various clubs - all very active. A resolution passed which will suspend the publication of Club Woman, & instead a News Letter will be sent to each State & Dist. Office & Chairmen & to each Club President, at a time designated by the Executive Board.

The State President, ^{Maryjane Vogel} advised us to not concern ourselves with all projects but to continue to promote our two; Library & Emergency Loan. She said Decedent Club is "outstanding". In her address she said "The Future is Now" and urged active participation in public affairs. She said "Service is the price we pay for the privilege of living!"

The speaker at the Banquet, Richard E. Cook, told us the biggest problem in the world ^{to-day} was to "get along with our fellow men." He stated the "World has existed in peace only 8% of the time since ^{the days of} Cain & Abel."

Distr. President, Mr. H. C. Elm, summarized a formula for all Clubs in 9 points:

1. Learn to get along with people.
2. Cultivate patience.
3. Respect the opinions of others.
4. Think a problem clear thru - then act.
5. Put yourself in the "other fellow's" place.
6. Be humble - 7. Loyal - 8. Cheerful + 9. WORK.

The President appointed Edith Crockett as Memorial Chairman of the Library Board.

Odal Calenau reported briefly on "Friends of the Library" Committee. There may be other sources of available funds & we are advised to await decisions that are due in July.

The regular Fall meeting of the Occident Club was called to order by President Ethel Birkington.

Those present recited the Collect in unison and joined in pledging allegiance to the Flag.

In the absence of Program Chairman, Mildred Langley introduced Cindy Paul, Mary Ashenbrenner and Luann Neslitt. They were delegates to Girls' State and gave an interesting account of their experiences there, stressing the difficulties of adjusting to complete strangers & different type of work assigned them. They felt the friends made, the experience of participating in legislative procedures, and the knowledge gained ~~were~~ were invaluable and altogether provided a period in their lives long to be remembered. One girl thought she would love to take an active part in a lively political campaign.

For the benefit of some who had asked "What is Occident Club?" Mildred Birkin skinned briefly the beginnings of our organization and stressed the two projects that are at present our main reasons for being.

President welcomed all and asked for introduction of guests and new members.

Hostesses were:

Notes, continued:

On Sept 30th, Lance Eggers, who is working toward his Eagle Scouting badge rank, brought hand-made, 'add-on' sections of wooden shelving, for the three 'YOUTH' sections on the North wall. These he installed, and then proceeded to 're-shelve' books for us. Also, he donated $5.00 of his earnings, for use in buying new books.

My thanks certainly go to him for his skill, determination and this achievement.

This 'Interim' report, designates the change of Board meeting dates to now fall on the First Monday of each month in place of the 3rd. Mon.

Accident Club meeting was called to order by President Ethel Pilkington at 2:00. Prior to the meeting a pot-luck dinner was held, after which each member wrote greetings to Emily Pratt and her sister Lillian Peter in the form of an acrostic Merry Christmas.

The meeting opened by the reciting of the Collect and The Pledge of Allegiance. 26 members, 1 guest present. Mennie Anderson, program director, introduced Helen Cobble, who has received corneal transplants in both eyes. Miss Cobble described the process of her increasing blindness during her school days in Calgary. For several years she acted as "guinea pig" in the development of contact lenses. She received her first corneal transplant in 1966 and now has nearly perfect vision. She made a moving plea for the dedication of transplantable organs for future use at the donor's death.

The business portion of the meeting began with the president's thanking the dinner and decorating committees for work well done.

The minutes of the November 7th meeting were read and approved.

The Treasurer's report was read and accepted. It showed a balance brought forward of $6,377.57
Receipts of 122.10

Edith Crockett - Safety Committee - reported that latest news releases establish stamp-lisens as non-harmful. She recommended Steve Gverbels recent ~~and~~ article on home safety measures, which appeared in a recent issue of the Statesman.

Marie Sandy reported on Veteran's Affairs. Mildred Botkin, Marguerite Patch, and Bessie McJeff have given 31 hours of ^{sewing} service in the last two months. They also took to the Veteran's Home a number of articles of good clothing, and many men's magazines.

Minnie Anderson cashed for Betty Crocker coupons. This is the last month for using coupons for the adjustable chairs at Tampa State Hospital. The amount not covered by coupons can be made up in cash. Also, helpers are needed for taking the children Christmas shopping (December 4, 5, 6).

Under old business the question was raised about newspaper collection. Nita Scriver said we could store papers at her place, until we find out about their disposal.

Nettie Hudson asked that we purchase two or three inexpensive plastic table cloths. There was discussion as to whether Occidental Club should supply cloths as part of the rental of the building. President Ethel appointed Nettie Hudson to act as chairman to consider what is best to do. She was given discretion to choose two other members to assist her.

Meeting was adjourned at 3:35 p.m.
