Committee reports:

Laverne reported Emergency Loan supplies loaned out were: a bed, wheel chair, walker, and cane. Returned were walkers.

Nettie thanked the Club for her cheer card and reported that Gladys Kelley was still unable to wear her glasses.

Unfinished Business

A good supply of canned and packaged goods were brought for the Food Bank and a contribution of $20.00 was made by those who brought no food. Also a motion was made by Minnie A. and seconded by Clara H. to donate $100⁰⁰ to the Food Bank to carryout the President's project. The motion was carried.

For the program minnie brought her "Talking Book" and demonstrated how to use it. We also listened to several short interesting articles.

One was a sequel to the night time Prayer. "A morning Prayer"

Now I'm awake
And see the light
God has kept me,
Through the night.
Unto him I lift
My voice and pray,
That he might keep
Me through the day.

The meeting was adjourned after tentative plans were made to meet at the Homestead Cafe for a 12:00 luncheon Dec. 2.

Nettie Cross and Vera Blackman served refreshments from a table decorated with a Thanksgiving motif.
