

MERIDIAN, Idaho
January 7 1963.

The Meridian Occident club, meeting in the club rooms was called to order at 2pm.

Marguerite Patch used a Collect used by women in the far east. Mrs. Patch called attention to the similarity of theirs and our own, written by Mary Stewart, for club women.

Our president Elma Veach, extended to each one present a most happy new year. Commenting upon the fact that all too rapidly God and His symbols are being removed from too many national exercises, Mrs. Veach asked us to again sing the prayer verse of America after making our pledge of allegiance to our flag.

Visitors welcomed were: Mmse. Mabel Davidson, Floyd Thomas, Roy Wood, Merle Meyer, Velma Cox and Nellie McFarlane.

Songs, incentive for smiles and happiness were sung in unison after which to her own accompaniment, Elsie Riddlemoser sang, "The Sunshine of Your Smile."

PROGRAM chairman for the month, Gertrude Rostin, introduced Mrs. Davidson who related her two months stay on English soil the past summer. Mrs. Davidson told that of a wonderful eight weeks her most outstanding moments and hours were in the cathedrals. She mentioned that the English show deeper religious fervor than do we of America. That more men attend services there. In speaking of an example concerning their schooling she told that a six year old had as her sums, the examples in short division. Business.

MINUTES of the last meeting were read and approved.

Iva Bower read the report for TREASURER Viola Moore, absent because of illness.

DISTRICT MEETING report was given by Deane Ulmer. Mrs. Marsstters had attended but illness kept her from our June Meeting.

PRESIDENT'S Yearly Report was read by Mrs. Veach. As always it was a good report, showing our club to be a very busy one; keeping alive it's two major projects--the Emergency Loan and the Library--and many smaller aides in the community.

INSTALLATION followed with Hazel Hedges in charge of that serious ceremony; Hazel calling upon new officers and members to continue their active support and cooperation. Minnie Anderson took pictures as she has done on all occasions. Corsages which had been supplied were then pinned on the incoming officers:

President	Mrs. Freda Bower
Vice President	Mrs. Ray S. Anderson
Secretary	Mrs. Francis Veach
Ass't Secretary	Mrs. Voris Botkin
Treasurer	Mrs. Warren Moore
Historian	Mrs. Marguerite Patch

Mrs. Bower told of her pleasure in the double honor bestowed upon her. First, that the Occident Club is a group she has always admired for their work and interests and membership. Secondedly, her own mother, Mrs. Silas Leighton having been a ^{Past} ~~Pres.~~ Charter member provides Mrs. Bower with a double challenge which she promised to meet with all her effort and ability.

Attention was again called to the fine scrap book on display. This has been kept for several years by Minnie Anderson.

Mrs. Bower named her committees for 1963-1964:

The meeting was then adjourned.
